iTransit Announces winner of two Super Bowl XLIII ticket giveaway at UMA Motorcoach Expo

ORLANDO, FL – January 29, 2009 -- iTransit, Inc., a full-service transportation service company in Orlando, Florida, gave away two tickets to Super Bowl XLIII at the UMA Motorcoach Expo.

Laura Swarthout of American Coach Lines of Orlando, was the lucky winner of the tickets. “I am thrilled to have won these tickets,” exclaimed Swarthout. Based in Orlando, American Coach Lines, provides charter and shuttle service and more throughout the Southeastern United States.

The iTransit booth was surrounded by dozens of motorcoach operators eagerly awaiting the drawing for the tickets.

“We were thrilled to have given away these tickets at the Motorcoach Expo.” said Mike Pouncey, President/CEO of iTransit. “It was great to see such excitement throughout the show floor.”

iTransit has a five-bay full service collision and refurbishment center to service motorcoaches and motorhomes, including a prep and graphics area, a flow through paint booth and a graphic and paint design center.

In addition, iTransit has strategically aligned with Gameday Management Group to offer wide a range of event management and bus procurement services. Gameday offers event services such as traffic plan implementation, shuttle system design, travel demand management, vehicle permit plans and wayfinding signage planning and placement.

Through this partnership, iTransit offers bus operators the opportunity for a profitable and rewarding experience. As the procurement arm for Gameday, iTransit works exclusively with Gameday to fulfill their bus and motorcoach needs for all current and future large-scale events.

In 2010, iTransit will be the exclusive distributor of the BreviBus, a 25-foot, rear engine, para-transit shuttle bus.
